Application for migration to Australia by a partner

Form
47SP

The Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples are the traditional custodians of the Australian land.

Life in Australia – Australian values

The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia.

This includes understanding that the English language, as the national language, is an important unifying element of Australian society. Australian society is also united through the following shared values:

- respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual;
- freedom of religion;
- commitment to the rule of law;
- Parliamentary democracy;
- equality of men and women;
- a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good;
- equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background.

The Life in Australia booklet provides more information on the values that Australians share and their way of life. This booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you have not already received a copy then it can be obtained from www.border.gov.au

You must have read the Life in Australia booklet before completing this application form. If you have difficulty, or are unable to read the booklet, you may have the content of it explained to you, for example, by a friend or relative. This form contains a statement, that you must sign, that confirms you understand and will respect the values of Australian society (as explained in the booklet) and will obey the laws of Australia. This includes acknowledging what would be required if you later applied for Australian citizenship.

This statement must also be signed by each person aged 18 years or over, who is included in this form.

About this application form

Complete this form if you wish to apply for a:

- Partner visa in Australia (subclass 820/801)
- Partner visa outside Australia (subclass 309/100)
- Prospective Marriage visa outside Australia (subclass 300).

For the purpose of this application:

- Partner means your spouse or de facto partner (including same-sex partners)
- Fiancé(e) refers to the person you intend to marry. This is usually your sponsor, or sponsoring partner.

If you are applying outside Australia, you will be applying to migrate. If you are applying in Australia, you will be applying for permanent residence. In this form, the term ‘migrate’ covers both.

Before completing this form, you should read the detailed requirements in booklet 1, Partner Migration, which is available from the department’s website www.border.gov.au/allforms/. Further information on partner category migration is also available from www.border.gov.au/trav/brin/ or you can contact the department’s enquiry line (see information box on page 5).

Before lodging the application

Please read this information carefully before you complete your application. Once you have completed your application we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

Make sure that:

- you are eligible to apply;
- your fiancé(e) or partner is eligible to be your sponsor; and
- you have all the required documents, including a completed form 40SP Sponsorship for a partner to migrate to Australia from your fiancé(e) or partner and, if applicable, a form 47A Details of child or other dependent family member aged 18 years or over completed and signed by each member of your family unit who is aged 18 years or over (whether or not they are migrating with you). (These forms are available from the department’s website www.border.gov.au/allforms/)

Integrity of application

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programmes. In relation to this application, if you or a member of your family unit:

- provide, or have provided in a previous application, fraudulent documents or false or misleading information (knowingly or not); and/or
- fail to satisfy, or have failed to satisfy in a previous application, the Minister of your or their identity;

this visa application may be refused and you, and any members of your family unit, may become unable to be granted a visa for specified periods of time, as set out in migration legislation.

If documents are found to be fraudulent or information to be incorrect after the grant of a visa, the visa may subsequently be cancelled.

Making a valid application

To make a valid application you must:

- complete this form;
- indicate the correct class of visa by selecting the type of application in Part A – Application overview;
- provide your current residential address. Under legislation, a post office box address will not be accepted as your residential address;
- pay the required Visa Application Charge;
- apply for a Partner (subclass 820/801) visa if you are in Australia and you are married or in a de facto relationship; or
- apply for a Partner (subclass 309/100) visa if you are outside Australia and you are married, intend to marry before the visa is decided or you are in a de facto relationship; or
- apply for a Prospective Marriage (subclass 300) visa if you are outside Australia and you intend to marry after you arrive in Australia; and
- be in the correct location when your application is received by the department. This means that, if you apply outside Australia, you must be outside Australia when the department receives your application. Similarly, if you apply in Australia, you must be in Australia when the department receives your application.

You must also ensure you:

- complete the form in English;
- answer all questions truthfully; and
- provide supporting documents where necessary.

Documents in languages other than English that you provide with this visa application must also be accompanied by an accurate English translation of each of those documents.

If you provide incorrect information or documents, this may affect whether or not you are granted a visa, or whether or not your visa is subsequently cancelled.

Read the notes on each question. If a question is not applicable, write 'N/A'. Any changes or corrections you make must be initialled and dated by each person who signs the form. If you use Part O – Additional information of this form or attach sheets of paper, each page must be signed and dated by all persons who sign the form.

Where to lodge your application

In Australia

If you are in Australia when you lodge your application, we ask that you send your application along with all accompanying documents by post or courier to the relevant Partner Processing Centre. For Partner Processing Centre contact details please refer to the department's website www.border.gov.au

Outside Australia

If you are outside Australia when you lodge your application, please refer to the department's website www.border.gov.au/about/contact/offices-locations to find your nearest Australian mission to lodge your application.

Note: Australian missions overseas vary greatly in the services that they are able to provide. Please check the relevant Australian mission's website or contact the Australian mission to check if it is preferable to post your application or to lodge it in person. At some Australian missions, you may be required to make an appointment to lodge your application in person.

After lodging the application

Under the Migration Act 1958, if your circumstances should change (for example, if your relationship ends due to separation, divorce or death or if you change your address), after you lodge your application, you must inform the department in writing.

If you change your address, especially if it is your address for correspondence, you can use form 929 Change of address and/or passport details, which is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/, from any office of the department or Australian mission. This is particularly important if you apply for a Partner visa from outside Australia, are granted the temporary visa and travel to Australia. The department needs to be able to contact you to ensure that processing of your application for the permanent visa can continue.

Note: Failure to notify the department of your change in circumstance (including changes to address details) may result in significant processing delays and possible visa refusal.

Visa Application Charge

Refer to Part M – Payment details of this form to calculate the correct charge and make payment.

Refer to www.border.gov.au/trav/visa/fees for a complete and current list of applicable fees and charges.

Fees and charges may be subject to change at any time and this may increase the cost of a visa application.

Generally, Visa Application Charges are reviewed on 1 July each year, and the exchange rates used to calculate the amount payable in a foreign country are updated on 1 January and 1 July each year.

If you do not pay the full Visa Application Charge amount, your visa application will not be valid.

Charges are generally not refundable, even if the application is withdrawn or refused.

Health

All applicants for permanent visas including the main applicant, spouse and any members of the family unit must be assessed against the health requirement. Even if the applicant's spouse and members of the family unit are not included in the visa application, they must still be assessed against the health requirement.

Applicants for a permanent visa will be asked to undergo a medical examination, an x-ray if 11 years of age or older and an HIV test if 15 years of age or older, as well as any additional tests required by the Medical Officer of the Commonwealth (MOC).

Note: Applicants may have already undertaken a health assessment for their visa. However, the department reserves the right to request additional health examinations as part of this visa application process.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, debit card, bank cheque or money order made payable to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection. Debit card and credit card are the preferred methods of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to lodge your application as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

Contact details for all offices of the department in Australia and for all Australian missions overseas are available from the department's website

www.border.gov.au/about/contact/offices-locations

Who the form covers

The application form covers a family unit, namely a main applicant and, if applicable, any members of the family unit.

Including family members in your application

In your visa application you will be asked for information about each member of your family unit (such as your partner or children) even if they do not intend to migrate with you. Information about which family members are considered to be a 'member of your family unit' for migration purposes is available by referring to form 1496i Including family members in your application. Form 1496i is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1496i before completing this form.

If you have members of your family unit who are aged 18 years or over, please obtain form 47A Details of child or other dependent family member aged 18 years or over. A form 47A must be completed for each member of your family unit aged 18 years or over, whether migrating or not. Form 47A is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/, from any office of the department or Australian mission overseas.

All members of your family unit must meet the health requirement, whether migrating or not.

Custody requirement

The department will seek to ensure that allowing a child to migrate is not in contravention of Australia's international obligations in relation to the prevention of child abduction. If your application includes a child aged under 18 years and the child's other parent is not migrating with you or there is any other person who has the legal right to determine where the child can live, you will need to provide a statutory declaration from each of them giving permission for the child to migrate. Alternatively, you can provide a certified copy of a valid court order showing that you/your spouse has the legal right to remove the child from their home.

Reducing violence in the community

The Australian Government is committed to reducing violence in the Australian community, including family and sexual violence. As part of this commitment, your sponsor is required to disclose criminal convictions they have had and/or charges awaiting legal action. They must also give the department permission to disclose any or all of their convictions to you as the visa applicant. The department may ask your sponsor to provide one or both of the following:

- an Australian National Police (NPC) check for them; and/or
- a foreign police check for every country in which they have lived for a period of 12 months or a total period of at least 12 months since the latest of the following dates:
  - 10 years before the date of the request to provide the police check(s); or
  - the date they turned 16.

The department may refuse your visa application if your sponsor:

- does not provide the required police checks to the department within a reasonable time; or
- has been convicted of a relevant offence/offences and they have a significant criminal record in relation to these relevant offences.

Your visa application must be refused if your sponsor does not give permission to the department to disclose their relevant offence/offences to you.

Note: If you lodged your visa application before 18 November 2016, the requirements above do not apply to you and your sponsor, even if they submit their Sponsorship form on or after 18 November 2016. The requirements above only apply if you applied for your visa on or after 18 November 2016.

The Australian Government is also committed to protecting children against child sex offences and other serious offences which may pose a significant risk to a child. If any applicant for this visa is under the age of 18 and the Minister is satisfied that your sponsor has a conviction or outstanding charge for a registrable offence, the visa application may be refused.

If your sponsor has been convicted of a registrable offence, subject to certain limited circumstances, their sponsorship must be refused if any applicant for this visa is under the age of 18 when department assesses and decides the sponsorship or the conviction has been quashed or otherwise set aside.

Supporting documents

The documents you must provide with this application are listed in Part J – Document checklist of this application form. You may be asked to provide other documents during processing. See Part 7 'Evidence to provide with your application' of booklet 1, Partner Migration for more information.

You should provide all the documents necessary to support your claims when you make your application.

If you cannot provide all the documents when you make your application, you should tell the department which documents are missing and when you expect to be able to provide them.

If you do not provide all the necessary documents, a decision may be made on the information you have provided. It is in your interest to support your application with as much information as possible at the time of application.

'Certified copies' of documents mean copies authorised or stamped as being true copies of originals by a person or agency recognised by the law of your country. In Australia, they must be certified by a justice of the peace or commissioner for declarations or by a person before whom a statutory declaration may be made.

All documents not in English must be accompanied by an accurate English translation of the original. You may be asked to provide the originals of your documents at a later stage. Do not provide originals unless you are asked.

For further information about certified copies, statutory declarations and English translation, see booklet 1, Partner Migration, which is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/ or from any office of the department or Australian mission overseas.

Second stage process

Usually, 2 years after the Partner visa application was made, persons who are holders of a temporary Partner visa are assessed as to whether they meet the requirements for the grant of a permanent Partner visa. However, the permanent visa may be granted without having to meet the usual two-year waiting period if:

- at the time you apply, you have been in a partner relationship with your partner for 3 years or more, or 2 years or more if there is a dependent child of your relationship; or
- your partner was granted a Protection visa or a permanent visa under the humanitarian programme and you were in the relationship before the visa was granted and this had been declared to the department at the time.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

Warning: Under section 234 of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act), you may be prosecuted for deliberately providing false or misleading information to the department.

Obtaining information about you from other agencies and organisations

Under section 56 of the Act, the department may seek information about you that is relevant to your migration application from other agencies and organisations. The agencies/ organisations may include:

- federal, state, territory and foreign government agencies;
- federal, state, territory and foreign law enforcement agencies;
- state or territory housing authorities (including private landlords);
- local government authorities in Australia or overseas;
- financial institutions;
- educational institutions;
- private businesses (including telecommunication and internet service providers, insurance companies); and
- any other relevant businesses or agencies.

Immigration assistance

A person gives immigration assistance to you if he or she uses, or claims to use, his or her knowledge or experience in migration procedure to assist you with your visa application, request for ministerial intervention, cancellation review application, sponsorship or nomination.

In Australia a person may only lawfully give immigration assistance if he or she is a registered migration agent or is exempt from being registered. Only registered migration agents may receive a fee or reward for providing immigration assistance.

If an unregistered person in Australia, who is not exempt from registration, gives you immigration assistance they are committing a criminal offence and may be prosecuted.

Migration agents in Australia

Migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA) unless they are exempt from registration.

Migration agents outside Australia

Migration agents who operate outside Australia do not have to be registered. The department may give some overseas agents an ID number. This number does not mean that they are registered.

Note: Some Australian registered migration agents operate overseas.

Migration agent information

A migration agent is someone who can:

- advise you on the visa that may best suit you;
- tell you the documents you need to submit with your application;
- help you fill in the application and submit it; and
- communicate with the department on your behalf.

If you appoint a migration agent, the department will assume that your migration agent will be your authorised recipient, unless you indicate otherwise.

Your migration agent will be the person with whom the department will discuss your application and from whom it will seek further information when required.

You are not required to use a migration agent. However, if you use a migration agent, the department encourages you to use a registered migration agent. Registered agents are bound by the Migration Agents Code of Conduct, which requires them to act professionally in their clients' lawful best interests.

Information on migration agents, including a list of registered migration agents, is available on the Office of the MARA website www.mara.gov.au

You can also access information about migration agents on the department's website www.border.gov.au

Exempt persons

The following people do not have to be a registered migration agent in order to provide immigration assistance, but they must not charge a fee for their service:

- a close family member (spouse, de facto partner, child, parent, brother or sister);
- a member of parliament or their staff;
- an official whose duties include providing immigration assistance (eg. a Legal Aid provider);
- a member of a diplomatic mission, consular post or international organisation.

Appointing a migration agent/exempt person

To appoint a migration agent/exempt person you should complete Part L – Options for receiving written communications.

Your migration agent/exempt person should complete form 956 Advice by a migration agent/exempt person of providing immigration assistance.

Form 956 is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/

Options for receiving written communications

If you do not appoint a migration agent/exempt person you may still authorise another person, in writing, to receive written communications on your behalf. This person is called the authorised recipient.

Authorised recipient information

All written communication about your application will be sent to your authorised recipient, unless you indicate that you wish to have health and/or character information sent directly to you.

The department will communicate with the most recently appointed authorised recipient as you may only appoint one authorised recipient at any time for a particular application.

You will be taken to have received any documents sent to that person as if they had been sent to you.

To appoint an authorised recipient you should complete:

- Part L – Options for receiving written communications; and
- form 956A Appointment or withdrawal of an authorised recipient.

Note: Migration agents/exempt persons do not need to complete form 956A.

Form 956A is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with.

If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

If you authorise another person to receive documents on your behalf and they wish to be contacted electronically, their signature is required on form 956 or 956A to indicate their consent to this form of communication.

Note: Electronic communication is the fastest means of communication available and the department prefers to communicate electronically because this results in faster processing.

86 ACKNOWLEDGEMENT REGARDING SOCIAL SECURITY PAYMENTS

This acknowledgment must be signed by the main applicant and each accompanying person aged 16 years or over.

I understand that if granted a visa:

- there is a two-year wait for social security payments, including unemployment benefits, for most newly arrived migrants;
- I will need to have enough money, even if unemployed, to support myself for the first two years and if I run out of money or fail to get a job in that period, that would not be sufficient reason to make me eligible for social security income support payments;
- the cost of living in Australia, compared to many other countries, is high;
- approval to migrate does not guarantee employment in Australia and that it is entirely my own responsibility to secure employment after arrival, including investigating my prospects before I arrive in Australia;
- work availability varies significantly from time to time in different parts of Australia and that for many jobs in Australia, applicants must be eligible for membership of a professional or industry organisation and/or be able to be registered or licensed with an Australian state authority before working in a particular occupation.

- Australian society values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background;
- the English language, as the national language, is an important unifying element of Australian society.

I undertake to respect these values of Australian society during my stay in Australia and to obey the laws of Australia.

I understand that, if I should seek to become an Australian citizen:

- Australian citizenship involves reciprocal rights and responsibilities. The responsibilities of Australian citizenship include obeying Australian laws, including those relating to voting at elections and serving on a jury.
