

About this form

Important – Please read this information carefully before you complete this form.

This form can be used to request a Certification of Immigration Status and/or to request the cancellation of a Temporary Resident visa for the purposes of making a Departing Australia Superannuation Payment (DASP) claim with the Australian Tax Office (ATO).

Important information about claiming DASP

The Departing Australia Superannuation Payment scheme is administered by the Australian Taxation Office and the eligibility requirements are set out in the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Regulations 1994.

If you accumulated superannuation while in Australia as a holder of a Temporary Resident visa, you are eligible to claim DASP if you meet all of the following requirements:

- you have left Australia;
- you were an eligible temporary resident;
- your Temporary Resident visa has ceased to be in effect (ie. all Temporary Resident visas have expired or been cancelled);
- you are not an Australian citizen, New Zealand citizen or Australian permanent resident.

If you are an Australian Citizen, an Australian Permanent Resident or a New Zealand Citizen, you will generally not be eligible for payment of your superannuation benefits until you have reached retirement age.

Applications for DASP claims can either be lodged:

- online with the ATO; or
- paper application submitted to your superannuation fund.

DASP online is a free service provided by the ATO and includes online verification of your immigration status to confirm that your Temporary Resident visa has ceased to be in effect and that you have left Australia.

If you choose to claim DASP using the ATO paper application form which is to be lodged directly with your superannuation fund, you will be required to provide evidence in support of that application to confirm that your Temporary Resident visa is no longer in effect and that you have left Australia.

Further information about eligibility and the ATO DASP online and paper application processes including the ATO DASP application form is available from the ATO website www.ato.gov.au/departaustralia or by writing to:

Request for cancellation of a Temporary Resident visa

In order to claim a DASP either online with the ATO or by paper with your superannuation fund, you may need to formally request the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (the department) to cancel your Temporary Resident visa. The visa cancellation can be requested if you are outside Australia and you do not intend to return to Australia.

By completing this form you can formally request the department to cancel your visa, and those of your family members or any other person who holds a visa because you hold a visa.

Please complete Parts A, C and D of this form if you are requesting the department to cancel a Temporary Resident visa.

There is no fee associated with request for cancellation of a Temporary Resident visa.

Request for Certification of Immigration Status

If you intend to lodge a paper application for your DASP claim with your superannuation fund and your superannuation withdrawal benefit is AUD5,000 or more, your superannuation fund requires you to provide a Certification of Immigration Status from the department as evidence that your Temporary Resident visa has ceased to be in effect and that you have left Australia.

Each person who wishes to request a Certification of Immigration Status must complete a separate form.

There is a fee associated with the request for Certification of Immigration Status (see Charges).

For paper lodged DASP applications where your superannuation withdrawal benefit is less than AUD5,000 you can provide your own evidence to your superannuation fund confirming that your Temporary Resident visa is no longer in effect (ceased/cancelled) and that you have left Australia. This evidence would generally include either a copy of your visa grant notification letter or a copy of your visa label or visa cancellation advice from the department as well as a copy of your passport showing that you have left Australia.

Note: If you are using the free ATO online DASP service, your eligibility is verified online, confirming that your Temporary Resident visa has ceased to be in effect and that you have left Australia.

Where to send this form

You can send the completed form to the department by:

- email to super.hobart@border.gov.au
- post to:
Department of Immigration and Border Protection
Superannuation Certification and Cancellation Team
GPO Box 1496
HOBART TAS 7001
- fax to: +61 3 6281 9453

Note: ATO DASP claim forms sent to the department will be returned to the sender.

What happens after you have lodged this form?

For visa cancellations – when the request is finalised the department will send you a letter either by email or post.

For Certification of Immigration Status requests – when the request is finalised the department will email the Certification of Immigration Status directly to your nominated superannuation fund(s) and will send a copy to you either by email or post.

Note: The department allows 21 days for a letter sent by post to be received at an overseas address.

Charges

There is a fee associated with the request for Certification of Immigration Status but there is no fee associated with the request to cancel your Temporary Resident visa.

Payment must accompany your request for Certification of Immigration Status and is not generally refunded if your request is not successful.

Fees may be subject to adjustment at any time, with many charges subject to adjustment on 1 July each year. This may increase the cost of making a request for Certification of Immigration Status.

To check the application charge, refer to the department's website www.border.gov.au or check with the nearest office of the department.

Method of payment

In Australia

To make a payment, please pay by credit card, bank cheque or money order (made payable in Australian dollars) to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection. Credit card is the preferred method of payment.

Outside Australia

Before making a payment outside Australia, please check with the Australian Government office where you intend to make the payment as to what methods of payment and currencies they can accept and to whom the payment should be made payable.

Send this form, together with the receipt of payment, to:

Integrity of the information you provide

The department is committed to maintaining the integrity of the visa and citizenship programs. Please be aware that if you provide us with fraudulent documents or claims, this may result in processing delays and possibly your request being denied.

Consent to communicate electronically

The department may use a range of means to communicate with you. However, electronic means such as fax or email will only be used if you indicate your agreement to receiving communication in this way.

To process your application the department may need to communicate with you about sensitive information, for example, health, police checks, financial viability and personal relationships. Electronic communications, unless adequately encrypted, are not secure and may be viewed by others or interfered with. If you agree to the department communicating with you by electronic means, the details you provide will only be used by the department for the purpose for which you have provided them, unless there is a legal obligation or necessity to use them for another purpose, or you have consented to their use for another purpose. They will not be added to any mailing list without your consent.

The Australian Government accepts no responsibility for the security or integrity of any information sent to the department over the internet or by other electronic means.

Important information about privacy

Your personal information is protected by law, including the Privacy Act 1988. Important information about the collection, use and disclosure (to other agencies and third parties, including overseas entities) of your personal information, including sensitive information, is contained in form 1442i Privacy notice. Form 1442i is available from the department's website www.border.gov.au/allforms/ or offices of the department. You should ensure that you read and understand form 1442i before completing this form.

18 Are you also using this form to request cancellation of a Temporary Resident visa?

No ► Go to Part D

Yes ► Go to Part C

Part C – Request cancellation of a Temporary Resident visa

Only complete Part C if you still hold a Temporary Resident visa that can be used to travel to and enter Australia.

If you currently hold a valid visa for travel to Australia you will not be eligible for refund of your superannuation funds until that visa expires or is cancelled. You may request to have your eligible Temporary Resident visa cancelled by completing this Part.

Cancellation procedures

You should note that:

- a request for visa cancellation made on this form will only be considered in respect of eligible Temporary Resident visas;
- requesting cancellation of a current eligible Temporary Resident visa is entirely optional;
- visa cancellation decisions will be made under Section 128 of the Migration Act 1958;
- visa cancellation under Section 128 of the Migration Act 1958 is discretionary;
- visa cancellation can only be considered under Section 128 of the Migration Act 1958 where the visa holder is outside Australia;
- if your visa is cancelled, the Migration Act 1958 requires that you be sent a notice stating the grounds for cancellation;
- there is no fee payable for visa cancellation.

Consequences of your visa cancellation for other persons

If your visa is cancelled:

- any visa(s) held by members of your family unit, that are held only because you hold your visa, will also be cancelled whether they are inside or outside Australia;
- any visa(s) held by persons, other than members of your family unit, that are held only because you hold your visa, may also be cancelled whether they are inside or outside Australia;
- if a person's visa is cancelled while that person is inside Australia, that person will become an unlawful non-citizen and liable to immigration detention and there will be restrictions on any further visa application they can make while they are in Australia.

Future travel to Australia

If your visa is cancelled:

- no further travel to Australia will be permitted until such time as a further visa has been granted;
- any future visa application you make will be considered on its merits at the time of application;
- the cancellation of your visa while you are outside Australia will not prevent you making any future visa applications outside Australia.
