

Commonly Imported Goods

This list is provided for use in private, one-off importations only.

The Customs Tariff Act 1995 (the Act) is the legal authority for classification. This list is intended to provide guidance and information to private importers for non-commercial, one-off importations. It does not in any way replace or supersede the Act. Only the latest official version of the Act is authoritative.

Contents – There is a contents list in the bookmarks area. If you cannot see it, click on the bookmarks tab on the left hand side

Searching - Click on the button with the binoculars. Pressing Control-F will also open a box for searching. Once you have the box open, type in the word you are looking for.

Please note: this list is only a selection of goods that may be imported. Where your good is not on the list, you can check the working Tariff on the Customs website (<http://www.customs.gov.au/tariff/tariff2012.asp>). Guidance would have been given in any notice from Customs and Border Protection about your shipment having arrived by post on how to access assistance.
